Print supports our community

Advertising in Redland Bayside News presents an exceptional opportunity for local businesses to connect with a vibrant and engaged community.

As a trusted source of information for residents, this publication offers a unique platform to showcase your products and services to a targeted audience that values local news and events.

One of the primary benefits of advertising in Redland Bayside News is the strong local presence.

With a dedicated readership that spans across Redland City, Wynnum, Manly and Bayside areas, your message reaches potential customers who are not just residents but active participants in the community. This localised approach ensures that your advertising dollars are spent effectively, as you engage with individuals who are more likely to seek out and support local businesses.

Redland Bayside News boasts a loyal readership that trusts its content.

When your advertisement is placed alongside relevant news stories, community events, and features, it gains credibility and visibility.

Readers are more inclined to explore your offerings, knowing they come from a source they trust.
